The Association may assess against a Lot a reasonable administrative fee for providing each letter (a "Dues Statement Letter") setting forth the status of any annual or special assessments due from any Lot Owner. From time to time, the Association is requested by sellers, buyers, mortgage lenders and real estate closing service providers on behalf of Lot Owners to set forth the current status of payment of annual and special assessments with respect to any Lot. The Association incurs time, cost and expense in providing such letters. The Dues Statement Letter administrative fee is initially fixed at $65.00 per letter. The Board of Directors of the Association shall have the right to adjust/increase this administrative fee from time to time.

with third parties, mailing and other time, cost and expenses. After the Association has sent a Lot Owner the first Notice of Covenant Violation Letter, the Association may assess a reasonable administrative fee for sending any second and any subsequent Notice of Covenant Violation Letters sent to the Lot Owner for the same or substantially the same violation. The administrative fee for any second and subsequent Notice of Covenant Violation Letters is initially fixed at $65.00 per letter. The Board of Directors of the Association shall have the right to adjust/increase this administrative fee from time to time. The second and any subsequent Notice of Covenant Violation Letters may not be sent more often than every twenty (20) days. The assessment of this administrative fee shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other available remedies of the Association, including the recovery of all legal fees, costs and expenses.

The administrative fees for the Dues Statement Letter and the Notice of Covenant Violation Letter shall become delinquent and shall, together with interest, become a continuing lien on the applicable Lot and shall run with the Lot if not paid within thirty (30) days after the date of the issuance of the applicable letter. If the administrative fee for the Dues Statement Letter or the Notice of Covenant Violation Letter is not paid when due, notice of the lien may be recorded in the Recorder's Office and the Association shall have the right to recover the administrative fee against the Lot Owner personally and/or by foreclosing its lien, and pursuing any other remedy that is available to the Association for non-payment of any annual or special assessment, with the same force and effect as if the administrative fee for a Dues Statement Letter or a Notice of Covenant Violation Letter was a delinquent assessment as provided in the Declaration.

2. Except as expressly modified or amended by this First Amendment, all other terms and provisions of the Declaration remain unchanged and shall remain in full force and effect.
